

Our Mission

To prepare all students with the self-discipline and academic proficiency necessary to be contributing citizens in an ever-changing society.

Our District

Nicholas County Schools is a small, rural district located in Carlisle, Kentucky with an enrollment (Pre K through 12th grade) of approximately 1,250 students.

The Nicholas County School System is composed of Nicholas County Elementary School (grades Pre K-6), Nicholas County High School (grades 7-12), and a central office.

All schools, offices, bus facilities, and athletic facilities are located on one campus.

The staff of the Nicholas County school district is comprised of a relatively equal number of residents of the county along with those living in other communities.

Nicholas County Schools

Students are always the first priority at Nicholas County Schools. This comes second nature in our small school district. Our students benefit from a shared sense of family and school pride among one another as well as from our staff, parents, and community. We care deeply about the education, safety, and well-being of each and every one of them.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

I would like to welcome you to NCMHS. Here the faculty and administrators work together to provide the best possible educational experience for our students. I would like to encourage each of you to have an active role in your child's education and encourage them to strive for excellence in their school experience. I have always tried to put the students at NCMHS at the forefront of the decisions I make. Please, never hesitate to call the school if you have questions or concerns. We will make every effort to meet the diverse needs of each student.
